

ROYAL COURT

16th September, 1988

Before: The Deputy Bailiff and
Jurats Baker and Le Boutillier

Her Majesty's Attorney General

- v -

Paul Andrew Cassin

Bail application refused

Her Majesty's Solicitor General for the Crown
The accused appeared on his own behalf

JUDGMENT

DEPUTY BAILIFF: We have had the advantage of reading the up to date report from Dr Faiz, and in the light of that report your application is refused. We think it is both in the public interest and in your own personal interest that you should stay where you are until you can be dealt with on a more permanent basis. Therefore the application is refused.
