

159

ROYAL COURT
Poursuites Criminelles

22nd September, 1989

Before: P.R. Le Cras, Esq., Commissioner, and Jurats Vint and Le Boutillier

---

Attorney General

- v -

Stuart Robert Moffat

---

Breach of Probation Order
imposed on 27th January, 1989, following guilty plea to breaking and entering and larceny (3 counts);
Malicious damage (1 count).

---

The Attorney General
Advocate A.D. Robinson for the accused.

---

JUDGMENT

COMMISSIONER LE CRAS: Moffat, the Court notes that by all accounts you are a hard worker and that you prefer to be usefully employed. It is reported that you have a pleasing personality and indeed are capable of hard work. We note the Probation Officer's comment that your ambition is to find a good job and to settle down in Jersey. We note also your satisfactory attendance at the alcohol study group. However, we have to say that orders are there to be obeyed. It is clear that your compliance with the Probation Order has been near to blatant abuse and your subsequent conviction is a clear breach of the Order. In those circumstances we have no hesitation in accepting the submission of the Attorney General and you will go to prison for six months on each count to be served concurrently.

n.b. no authorities.