

ROYAL COURT

17.

26th January, 1990

Before: The Deputy Bailiff, and Jurats Myles and Bonn

The Attorney General

- v -

Michael Aubin

One count of indecent assault involving an 8 year old boy.

Advocate C.E. Whelan for the Crown
Advocate A.P. Begg for the accused.

JUDGMENT

THE DEPUTY BAILIFF: We are going to place you on probation for the period of one year; you have been on probation before so you know what it involves. It means that you will be of good behaviour throughout that time, because if you were to reoffend in any way you would come back for sentence, not only for whatever new offence you had committed but for this offence as well; and you must both live and work where directed by your Probation Officer.

Authority cited

D.A. Thomas' Principles of Sentencing (2nd Edition) at p.130