Before: The Bailiff, and
Jurats Orchard and Gruchy

The Attorney General

- v -

Anthony Hunter Milne

Application for review of Magistrate's decision to refuse Bail.

The Attorney General.
Advocate Miss D.M.C. Sowden for the accused.

JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: This is a review of the Magistrate's decision of 3rd August, 1992, to refuse Bail. Apart from the matter you mentioned, Miss Sowden, concerning the applicant's father, all the other matters were fully canvassed before the Magistrate, who based his reasons for refusing bail on grounds which this Court cannot find were wrong: we cannot find that he failed to take into account something which he should have taken into account nor that he took something into account he should not have taken into account. Therefore the application is refused.
