

K I N G.

SECT. I.

Grants from the Crown.—Annexed Property.—Power of granting Jurisdictions.—Power of Revocation.

1491. February 10. THE KING against The TOWN of ELGIN.

No 1.

GIF ony burgh within this realme, annalzeis, disponis, or dilapidatis the commoun gude of the said burgh, in contrare the commoun weill of the samin, the Kingis grace, and his counsall, hes gude actioun and interes to caus the samin be restorit and redressit agane in integrum.

Balfour, (BURROW LAWS.) No 14. p. 45.

1491. February 28. The KING against The BURGH of ABERDEEN.

No 2.

NANE of our Soverane Lordis burrowis hes power to sell, annalzie, or dispone perpetuallie, the commoun gude of the burgh, or ony part thair of, nor zit to set the samin in tak or assedatioun, abone the space of thre zeiris, according to the act of Parliament. Of the quhilk the tenour followis: Item, it is statute and ordanit, anent the commoun gude of our Soveraine Lordis burrowis within this realme, that the rentis of the burrowis, as landis, fischingis, fermis, maillis, milnis, watteris, and zeirlie revenewis, be not set bot for thre zeiris allanerlie: And gif ony happinis to be utherwayis set, that thay be of nane availl, force nor effect in tyme to cum.

Balfour, (BURROW LAWS.) No 14. p. 45.