

1627. July 27. MARJORIEBANKS against _____.

A WOMAN may not be compelled to fulfil and make payment of any bond made by her, constante matrimonio.

Page 18.

---

1627. July 27. LAIRD HADDAN against The LADY STAINHOUSE, and TWEEDY,
Her SON.

A SON, being in the house with his mother, bruiks a going mill. The mother is pursued for damages, and the deed proven against her son; but the mother is absolved, notwithstanding, as not answerable for her son, quia filius constat esse in familia patris et non matris.

Page 260.

---

1627. July 29. The EARL of HOME against SIR JOHN PRESTON.

TWO persons having comprised a land, they both take seasine in one day. The Lords grant priority according to the hours contained in each seasine.

Page 209.

---

1627. July 29. BAILLY against The LADY GARVISTOUNE.

A WOMAN, being a widow, is summoned by the first summons. She is married before the second summons; and her husband is not summoned in the second summons. The Lords will not give process while the husband be summoned.

Page 260.

---

1627. March 30 and July 30. CHALMERS against His DEBTORS.

A PERSON committed to ward, seeks liberty super cessione bonorum, or else a modification for his aliment; one of his creditors alleged, that he can seek no benefit of the law so long as he remains rebel unrelaxed. The Lords ordained the complainer either to be put to liberty, or to have 40d. in the day for his aliment, notwithstanding of the horning.

Page 248.

---