1663. fanuary 28. Lord Balnagoun against Mr Thomas M‘Kinzie.

Balnagoun as donatar to the efcheat of his father, purfues Mr Thomas $M^{\prime}$ Kenzie for the price of fome lands fold to him by his father, and for the annualrents fince.-It was answered for the defender, That there was no annualrent due by the minute ; and albeit it was the price of land ; yet Balnagoun had never made Mr Thomas a right to this day, but had forced him to be at a huge expences and plea, and fó was in mora, that the price was not paid; and albeit he did peffefs the lands, it was by redeeming wadfets thereupon, contained in the minute.

The Lords found Mr Thomas liable, either for the annualrent, or for the fuperplus of the rents of the land, more than paid the annualrent. In this procefs, it was found, that the probation of a tenor, before an inferior judge, was null. (See Jurisdiction, Prorogation of.)
