GLEBE.

1734. February 8.

MR FARQUHAR BEATON against WILLIAM DALLAS of Cantra.

THOUGH a Minister have ^(no) more than four acres of glebe, the 48th act 3d Parl. James VI. does not restrict him to that quantity, and he may notwithstanding seek one horse and cow's grass upon the 21st act 1663; and a Minister of two united kirks having betwixt the two 12 acres of glebe, was found entitled to grass by the said act. Found that the kirk-yard ought not to be used for pasturage, nor computed as part of the Minister's grass.
