

No 14.

1779. July 27.

SLOAN against SPALDING.

THE LORDS found, that although a partial confirmation by the nearest of kin will transmit the whole, yet as to subjects not specially confirmed, or not introduced with, they still remain in bonis of the first defunct, and must be taken up accordingly, and are affectable by his debts,

Fol. Dic. v. 4. p. 18. Fac. Col.

* * * This case is No 94. p. 3918., voce EXECUTOR.

See EXECUTOR.

See SERVICE and CONFIRMATION.

Who are nearest of kin? See SUCCESSION.

See APPENDIX.]