

1794. June 10. WALKER against TRUSTEES of DINGWALL.

No 155. THE LORDS found, That the purchaser of a ship, which was at sea at the time of the sale, claiming right to the freights from the date of the purchase, was not obliged to admit a claim of compensation on the part of the freighter, for a debt due to him by the former proprietor of the ship. See APPENDIX.

Fol. Dic. v. 3. p. 147.

Retention, that arises from the nature of a mutual contract.

See MUTUAL CONTRACT.

Retention against Tutors and Curators, and then Assignees ante redditas rationes.

See PAYMENT.

Retention by an Executor for debts due to himself. See PAYMENT.

Retention against a Factor's Assignee. See PAYMENT.

See Lee against Watson, voce PACTUM ILLICITUM.

See Kilcadron against Balgillo, Durie, p. 880. voce PERSONAL and TRANSMISSIBLE.

See No 35. p. 851.

See Crowdieknows against Creditors, D. Falconer, v. 1. p. 93. voce PAYMENT.

See BANKRUPT.—BILL OF EXCHANGE, Div. V.—DEBTOR and CREDITOR.—
APPENDIX.