<sup>(a)</sup> 2010 asp 14 ("the 2010 Act"). Section 12(10) of the 2010 Act contains a definition of "prescribed" for the purpose of section 12(8). Section 12 is applied, with modifications, to common grazings by section 28 of and paragraph 5 of schedule 3 to the 2010 Act and to land held runrig by section 32 of that Act.

FORM OF NOTICE OF FIRST REGISTRATION OF A CROFT

Crofting Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Notice of first registration of croft

This notice is intimation that the croft known as [insert name and number of croft, as appropriate] has been the subject of a first registration in the Crofting Register under the provisions of the Crofting Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 (“the 2010 Act”).

If you are a person mentioned in section 12(3) of the 2010 Act, or are otherwise aggrieved by the registration of the croft to which this notice relates, you may apply to the Scottish Land Court to challenge the registration in accordance with section 14 of the 2010 Act. Any such application must, subject to section 14(2) of the 2010 Act, be made no later than 9 months from the date on which the Crofting Commission issued notification of the registration under section 12(1) of the 2010 Act. In this case, that date was [insert date of notification].

Information relating to this registration, including maps or plans, can be viewed online on the Crofting Register at www.crofts.ros.gov.uk/register/home. Alternatively, contact the Keeper of the Registers of Scotland in writing at Meadowbank House, 153 London Road, Edinburgh EH8 7AU or Hanover House, 24 Douglas Street, Glasgow G2 7NQ.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 12(8) of the Crofting Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 provides that in most cases the applicant for first registration of a croft, common grazing or land held runrig in the Crofting Register must, on receipt of the certificate of registration, give public notice of the registration by—

- placing an advertisement, for two consecutive weeks, in a local newspaper circulating in the area where the croft, common grazing or land held runrig is situated, and
- affixing a conspicuous notice in the prescribed form to a part of the croft, common grazing or land held runrig.

This Order prescribes that form of notice.

A business and regulatory impact assessment has not been produced as no impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
