Regulation 2

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for the authentication of a prior statement of a type mentioned in section 22A(7) of the Vulnerable Witnesses (Scotland) Act 2004 i.e. one contained in a precognition on oath or one made in prior proceedings (either criminal or civil and whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere). Such authentication will allow these statements to be admissible in children's hearing proceedings taking place in the sheriff court.

Regulation 2 details that such prior statements can be authenticated by attaching a prescribed certificate to them. It further details who can sign the certificate.
