Complainant has demonstrated Rights in a name highly similar to the Domain Name, differing only in the additional of a word which describes services offered by the Complainant and which are covered by the Complainant's trade mark registration in any event.

Whilst no use has been made of the Domain Name, it is hard to conceive of any use which would not infringe the Complainant's rights. In the absence of any response from the Registrant, there are no factors against this being an Abusive Registration.
