Appeal Number: AA/05881/2014

THE IMMIGRATION ACTS

Decided on the Papers at Field House
On 4 June 2018

Decision & Reasons Promulgated
On 10 September 2018

Before

UPPER TRIBUNAL JUDGE DAWSON

Between

MUSTAFA LAALI
(ANONYMITY DIRECTION NOT MADE)

Appellant

and

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT

Respondent

DECISION AND REASONS

1. The Secretary of State has by letter dated 26 June 2018 accepted that the error of law alleged by the appellant has been made out and that having agreed to the matter being heard de novo does not object to the matter being remitted to the First-tier Tribunal for a remaking of the decision.
2. Having regard to the nature of the error and the need for further evidence to be heard, my preliminary view is that the course proposed by the respondent is appropriate.
3. Unless the appellant proposes an alternative course within fourteen days of the date of the sending out of these directions, this decision will stand as the decision in the appeal by the appellant before the Upper Tribunal whereby, with the consent of the Secretary of State, the decision of the First-tier Tribunal is set aside and the appeal remitted to the First-tier Tribunal for its further consideration.

4. No anonymity direction is made.
