Secretary of State for the Home Department

DECISION AND REASONS

1. The appellant appealed to the First-tier Tribunal ("FtT") against a decision of the SSHD, dated 30 June 2017, refusing his application for an EEA Permanent Residence Card.
2. The FtT dismissed the appeal on a wholly irrational basis and, unsurprisingly, the FtT's decision was set aside by DUTJ Lewis in a decision promulgated on 23 February 2018.
3. The SSHD has since given further consideration to the appellant's application and, by way of an e-mail of 5 March 2018 sent to the Upper Tribunal, accepts that the appellant has acquired permanent residence in the UK and is entitled to a Permanent Residence Card confirming as much. The e-mail further invited the Upper Tribunal to allow the appellant's appeal on such basis, an invitation I accept.
4. On the basis of the SSHD's concession, I allow the appellant's appeal against the SSHD's decision of 30 June 2017.
