Heard at: Leeds On: 10, 11, 12 May 2017
15 and 16 May 2017

Before: Employment Judge Little
Members: Ms H Brown
Mr L Priestley

Representation

Claimant: In person (assisted by Professor I Burkitt)

Respondent: Ms S Brewis of Counsel (instructed by DAS Law Ltd)

JUDGMENT

The unanimous Judgment of the Tribunal is that:-

1. The Claimant did not make a qualifying protected disclosure pursuant to Employment Rights Act 1996 section 43B.
2. Accordingly the complaint under section 47B (subjection to a detriment on the ground that a protected disclosure has been made) fails.
3. The complaint brought under section 103A (automatically unfair dismissal because of protected disclosure reason) also fails.
4. The complaint of unfair dismissal (ordinary) also fails.
5. Accordingly the claim itself is dismissed.
