

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mr N. Gayle

Respondents: The Zacchaeus 2000 Trust

Heard at: London Central
Before: Employment Judge Goodman

On: 13 September 2017

Representation

Claimant: in person

Respondent: Mr O. Isaacs, counsel

PRELIMINARY HEARING

JUDGMENT

1 The application for interim relief fails because the claimant has not shown that he is likely to succeed.

2 The claimant acted abusively or otherwise unreasonably in relation to the ineffective hearing on 1 September. The respondent's application to strike out the claim for that reason fails because it is not a proportionate remedy, but the claimant is ordered to pay the respondent's costs of 1 September in the sum of £1,500.

Employment Judge Goodman

Date 13 September 2017 _____

Note

Reasons for the decision having been given orally at the hearing, written reasons will not be provided unless requested within 14 days of this written record of the decision being sent to the parties.