JUDGMENT

The judgment of the Tribunal further to the Case Management Orders of 23 January 2018 is that:

1. In view of the fact that the respondents have not complied with the Case Management Order, in that they have not filed an ET3 within the extended time limit, a rule 21 default judgment is made in favour of the claimant.

2. Consequently the respondents will pay to the claimant forthwith the sum of £46,206.45 made up as per the schedule below.

- 3. The recoupment provisions do not apply.
- 4. The sum awarded above includes all interest on the award.

NOTICE

THE EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS (INTEREST) ORDER 1990

Tribunal case number(s): 2423662/2017

Name ofcase(s):Ms A McGrannvNeil WynneYvonne Woods

The Employment Tribunals (Interest) Order 1990 provides that sums of money payable as a result of a judgment of an Employment Tribunal (excluding sums representing costs or expenses), shall carry interest where the full amount is not paid within 14 days after the day that the document containing the tribunal's written judgment is recorded as having been sent to parties. That day is known as "the relevant decision day". The date from which interest starts to accrue is called "the calculation day" and is the day immediately following the relevant decision day.

The rate of interest payable is that specified in section 17 of the Judgments Act 1838 on the relevant decision day. This is known as "the stipulated rate of interest" and the rate applicable in your case is set out below.

The following information in respect of this case is provided by the Secretary of the Tribunals in accordance with the requirements of Article 12 of the Order:-

"the relevant decision day" is: 07 March 2018

"the calculation day" is: 08 March 2018

"the stipulated rate of interest" is: 8%
