FIRST-TIER TRIBUNAL
PROPERTY CHAMBER
(RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY)

Case reference : LON/00AA/LDC/2016/0058

Property : 4600 Long Leasehold Properties where the City of London Corporation is the Landlord.

Applicant : The Mayor and Commonality and Citizens of the City of London

Representative : In house

Respondent : The leaseholders identified in the application.

Representative : In person

Type of application : Application for dispensation from some or all of the requirements to consult under S.20 of the Landlord & Tenant Act 1985.

Tribunal member(s) : Ms. A. Hamilton-Farey

Date of decision : 12 August 2016

DECISION

1. The tribunal grants dispensation from the requirements to consult the leaseholders in respect of the qualifying long term agreement for the supply of gas and electricity to approximately 4,600 units located at the Barbican Estate, Frobisher Crescent as well as various other housing estates comprising residential properties, including converted residential flats in the West End of London.

Background:

2. By an application dated 13 June 2016, the applicant sought dispensation from the requirements to consult respondent leaseholders in relation to a qualifying long term agreement for the supply of electricity and gas to various properties of which it is the Landlord. The tribunal was informed that the three current contracts for the supply of electricity terminate on 30 September 2016 and those for gas on the same date. The application relates to a contract for the supply of both services from 1 October 2016 to 30 September 2018. The applicants are members of a buying group known as LASER, which is operated by Kent County Council and which procures similar supplies on behalf of approximately 120 Local Authorities.

4. The applicant says that it is unable to comply with the consultation requirements set out in the Regulations, but has in any event served a Notice of Intention on all affected parties. One response was received. The applicants say that they are unable to comply with the second stage of the consultation process because the utility market being a commodity market is affected by price fluctuations and the price offered by a supplier during the mini-tendering process will only be offered for a limited period of time, and the 30 day response period cannot be given

5. Directions were issued by the tribunal on 20 June 2016, which required any respondent leaseholders who opposed the application for dispensation to provide a statement of case and return a reply slip to the tribunal and the applicants confirming that they had done so, and confirming whether or not they were content for this matter to proceed on the basis of written representations only.

6. Neither the applicants nor the tribunal has received any statements opposing to the application.

7. The tribunal considers therefore that the respondent leaseholders are in support of the application, and that dispensation should be granted.

8. The parties should be aware that the grant of dispensation does not deal with any matters regarding the reasonableness of or liability for the service charges in relation to these works.

9. Accordingly the tribunal is satisfied that it would not be feasible for the applicants to comply with the requirements to consult, given the limited timetable for acceptance of tenders from suppliers and that dispensation from the requirements to consult should be granted.

Tribunal: Ms. A. Hamilton-Farey

Date: 12 August 2016

Rights of appeal

By rule 36(2) of the Tribunal Procedure (First-tier Tribunal) (Property Chamber) Rules 2013, the tribunal is required to notify the parties about any right of appeal they may have.

If a party wishes to appeal this decision to the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber), then a written application for permission must be made to the First-tier Tribunal at the regional office which has been dealing with the case.

The application for permission to appeal must arrive at the regional office within 28 days after the tribunal sends written reasons for the decision to the person making the application.

If the application is not made within the 28 day time limit, such application must include a request for an extension of time and the reason for not complying with the 28 day time limit; the tribunal will then look at such reason(s) and decide whether to allow the application for permission to appeal to proceed, despite not being within the time limit.

The application for permission to appeal must identify the decision of the tribunal to which it relates (i.e. give the date, the property and the case number), state the grounds of appeal and state the result the party making the application is seeking.
