If a national decision in relation to part of an area in a third country is not taken or adopted by the authority of the third country, an application in respect of the amendment in relation to the geographical area as a whole may be submitted under the non-standard amendment procedure.”.
- (19) In Article 18—
- (a) for paragraph 1 substitute—
 - “1. Paragraphs 1a to 1n apply to an application for temporary amendments to a product specification for a protected designation of origin or protected geographical indication that relates to a geographical area in the United Kingdom (‘a temporary amendments application’).
 - 1a. A temporary amendments application must be made to the Secretary of State.

1b. The procedures laid down in Articles 94 and 97 to 99 of Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 do not apply to a temporary amendments application.

1c. A temporary amendments application may be made by a group of producers having a legitimate interest in the relevant protected designation of origin or protected geographical indication unless the application to register the designation of origin or geographical indication was made by a single applicant, in which case the temporary amendments application may be made by that person.

1d. If a temporary amendments application is not made by the single applicant or group of producers who submitted the original application ('the original applicant'), the Secretary of State must give the original applicant the opportunity to make comments on the application if that applicant still exists.

1e. A temporary amendments application must:

- (a) describe the amendment applied for,
- (b) be accompanied by a copy of the product specification showing the proposed temporary amendments,
- (c) compare for each amendment:
 - (i) the original product specification against the proposed amended product specification, and
 - (ii) where relevant, the original single document against the proposed amended single document,
- (d) provide an explanation of why the temporary amendment is needed, and
- (e) provide an estimate, where this is possible, of how long it is anticipated that the temporary amendment will be needed for.

1f. A temporary amendments application that does not comply with paragraph 1e is inadmissible.

1g. Where a temporary amendments application is inadmissible, the Secretary of State must inform the applicant that the application is inadmissible as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the application.

1h. The Secretary of State may approve a temporary amendments application if the Secretary of State considers that a temporary amendment to the product specification is appropriate.

1i. Where a temporary amendments application is approved, the Secretary of State must specify the period during which the temporary amendments are to apply.

1j. The period during which any approved temporary amendments are to apply may be specified by reference to a set period of time or may be specified by reference to the happening of a specified event.

1k. The Secretary of State, in deciding the period for which any approved temporary amendments are to apply, must take into account the conditions prevailing at the time the decision to approve the application is taken and the period for which the Secretary of State anticipates that those conditions will continue.

1l. The Secretary of State may, on an application by a group of producers or single applicant who made a temporary amendments application under paragraph 1a, as read with paragraph 1c, extend the period during which any relevant approved temporary amendments are to apply on one or more occasions if the Secretary of State considers that it is appropriate to do so having regard to the conditions prevailing at the time that decision is made.

1m. After making a decision on a temporary amendments application, the Secretary of State must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time:

- (a) a notice informing the applicant and the public of the decision made in relation to the application, and
- (b) where the application is approved, details of the temporary amendments made to the product specification and the period during which those temporary amendments are to apply.

1n. Where a temporary amendments application is approved and the period during which the temporary amendments are to apply is extended, the Secretary of State must, on each occasion the period is extended, publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State a notice informing the applicant and the public that the period has been extended and specifying the extended period during which the temporary amendments are to apply.”;

Regulation 3

The Natural Mineral Water, Spring Water and Bottled Drinking Water Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015: new regulation 4A

“Transitional provision: withdrawal from the EEA and the EU

4A.—(1) The following waters are accredited, that is to say treated for the purposes of these Regulations as if they were natural mineral waters recognised by the Agency under regulation 4(2)(d)(i)—

- (a) established EU recognised natural mineral waters;
- (b) established Icelandic recognised natural mineral waters;
- (c) established Norwegian recognised natural mineral waters.

(2) The accreditation in paragraph (1) continues to have effect in relation to a natural mineral water to which subparagraph (a), (b) or (c) of that paragraph applies unless a notification is given under paragraph (3), (4) or (5) respectively, in which case the accreditation ceases on the relevant accreditation cessation date.

(3) In the case of an established EU recognised natural mineral water, if the Department of Health is of the opinion that there is at least one established recognised UK natural mineral water that is not treated by the responsible authority in at least one member State as a recognised mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC⁽³⁴⁾, the Department of Health may notify the European Commission that the accreditation provided for in paragraph (1)(a) in relation to established EU recognised natural mineral waters is to cease on a date specified in that notification.

(4) In the case of an established Icelandic recognised natural mineral water, if the Department of Health is of the opinion that there is at least one established recognised UK natural mineral water that is not treated as a recognised mineral water in Iceland for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, the Department of Health may notify the Icelandic Food and Veterinary Authority that the accreditation provided for in paragraph (1)(b) in relation to established Icelandic recognised natural mineral waters is to cease on a date specified in that notification.

(5) In the case of an established Norwegian recognised natural mineral water, if the Department of Health is of the opinion that there is at least one established recognised UK natural mineral water that is not treated in Norway as a recognised mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, the Department of Health may notify the Norwegian Food Safety Authority that the accreditation provided for in paragraph (1)(c) in relation to established Norwegian recognised natural mineral waters is to cease on a date specified in that notification.

(6) No notification may be given under paragraph (3), (4) or (5) before the end of the period of six months beginning on the day on which exit day falls.

(7) The accreditation cessation date specified in a notification given under paragraph (3), (4) or (5) must be a date that is at least six months after the date on which the notification is given, beginning with the day after the day on which that notification is given.

(8) The Department of Health must publish a copy of any notification given under paragraph (3), (4) or (5) in such manner as appears appropriate to the Department of Health in order to bring its effect to the notice of those that the Department of Health considers likely to be, or representative of those likely to be, affected in Northern Ireland as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(34) OJ No L 164, 26.6.2009, p. 45.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(9) The Department of Health must from time to time publish, in such manner as appears appropriate to the Department of Health, a list of the names of the established EU, Icelandic and Norwegian recognised natural mineral waters that are treated as accredited natural mineral waters under paragraph (1) (“the paragraph 9 list”).

(10) Where a notification is given under paragraph (3), (4) or (5), the Department of Health must update the paragraph 9 list as soon as reasonably practicable after the accreditation cessation date specified in the notification.

(11) The paragraph 9 list is to be treated as conclusive evidence that the waters are accredited natural mineral waters for the purposes of these Regulations.

(12) In this regulation—

“accreditation cessation date” means the cessation date as notified by the Department of Health under paragraph (3), (4) or (5);

“Directive 2009/54/EC” means Directive 2009/54/EC as incorporated into the EEA Agreement, and as it had effect, immediately before exit day;

“established EU recognised natural mineral water” means—

- (a) a natural mineral water extracted from the ground in any member State—
 - (i) that immediately before exit day had the status of a recognised natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, and
 - (ii) for which that recognition remains in force in the member State in which it was extracted from the ground;
- (b) a natural mineral water extracted from the ground in a third country—
 - (i) that immediately before exit day had the status of a recognised natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, having been recognised by any member State as a natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC based on a certificate (“Article 1(2) certificate”) of the type referred to in the second subparagraph of Article 1(2) of Directive 2009/54/EC issued by the responsible authority in the country of extraction,
 - (ii) for which that recognition remains in force in any member State, and
 - (iii) for which the Article 1(2) certificate remains valid;

“established Icelandic recognised natural mineral water” means a natural mineral water extracted from the ground in Iceland—

- (a) that immediately before exit day had the status of a recognised natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, and
- (b) for which that recognition remains in force in any member State;

“established Norwegian recognised natural mineral water” means a natural mineral water extracted from the ground in Norway—

- (a) that immediately before exit day had the status of a recognised natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC, and
- (b) for which that recognition remains in force in any member State;

“established recognised UK natural mineral water” means a natural mineral water extracted from the ground in the United Kingdom—

- (a) that immediately before exit day had the status of a recognised natural mineral water for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC by virtue of a recognition granted under any legislation made in any part of the United Kingdom implementing that Directive, and

- (b) for which the recognition granted under that legislation remains in force in any part of the United Kingdom (albeit not for the purposes of Directive 2009/54/EC);
- “member State” means a member State of the EU as constituted immediately after exit day;
- “third country” has the same meaning as in Directive 2009/54/EC.”

Regulation 13

Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/33: new provisions

PART 1

Chapter 3: new Section 6

“SECTION 6

Appeals

Article 39a

Appeals: general

1. An appeal may be made to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State specified in column 1 of the table in Annex 8.
2. Such an appeal may be made:
 - (a) in all cases, by a person specified in the corresponding entry in column 2 of the table in Annex 8;
 - (b) in the case of a decision affecting an application submitted by the authorities of a third country, the authorities of that third country.
3. In determining such an appeal the FTT:
 - (a) must consider the decision appealed against afresh;
 - (b) may take into account evidence that was not available to the Secretary of State.
4. The FTT may:
 - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) if it allows the appeal, exercise any power specified in the corresponding entry in column 3 of the table in Annex 8.
5. The Secretary of State may consider a decision specified in column 1 of the table in Annex 8 afresh (“the original decision”) if evidence becomes available to the Secretary of State after making the original decision that was not available to the Secretary of State at the time the original decision was made.
6. Paragraph 5 applies even though an appeal has been made in respect of the original decision.
7. Where the Secretary of State decides to consider an original decision afresh in a case where an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of that decision:
 - (a) the Secretary of State must notify the FTT of the Secretary of State’s decision to consider the original decision afresh and publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the person who made the appeal against the decision and the public of that decision;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) the appeal to the FTT is suspended until such time as the Secretary of State has made a fresh decision in relation to the matter;
 - (c) the Secretary of State must, following the making of the fresh decision, notify the FTT of that decision and publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the person who made the appeal against the decision and the public of that decision.
8. If the Secretary of State makes the same decision again, the appeal to the FTT restarts.
9. If the Secretary of State makes a different decision, the appeal to the FTT ceases unless the FTT directs otherwise.
- Article 39b

Appeals: applications to protect traditional terms

1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to recognise a traditional term and the Secretary of State has made an entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register registering the traditional term, the entry in the register is to be maintained but is in suspense and must be marked to indicate that it is in suspense.
2. The suspension provided for in paragraph 1 continues until the FTT has determined the appeal and:
 - (a) the marking relating to the suspension of the entry is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT dismisses the appeal;
 - (b) the entry relating to the traditional term is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT determines that the decision must be quashed and directs the Secretary of State to remove the entry relating to the traditional term from the register;
 - (c) the marking relating to the suspension of the entry is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT remits the matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision and the Secretary of State, following such reconsideration, decides to approve the application and maintain the entry on the register relating to the traditional term;
 - (d) the entry relating to the traditional term is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT remits the matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision and the Secretary of State, following such reconsideration, decides to reject the application relating to the geographical indication.
3. Where the FTT remits a matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision:
 - (a) the Secretary of State, after making a fresh decision, must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the applicant and the public of that fresh decision;
 - (b) the provisions of this Section and Annex 8 apply to the fresh decision made by the Secretary of State.
4. After making a change to the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register of the type specified in points (a) to (d) of paragraph 2, the Secretary of State must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the applicant and the public of the action taken.
5. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to recognise a traditional term and the Secretary of State has not made an entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register, the Secretary of State must not make an entry in the register until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

Article 39c

Appeals: applications to modify traditional terms

1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application to modify a traditional term and the Secretary of State has not updated the entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register relating to it pursuant to Article 27(2) of Implementing Regulation (EU) 2019/34.

2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register relating to the traditional term must be maintained without modification but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the modification of the traditional term is pending.

3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application to modify a traditional term and the Secretary of State has updated the entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register.

4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the previous entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register is to be restored but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the modification of the traditional term is pending.

5. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to reject an application to modify a traditional term, the existing entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register is to be maintained until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, but the entry must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to an application to modify the traditional term is pending.

Article 39d

Appeals: applications to cancel the protection of a traditional term

1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the protection of a traditional term and the Secretary of State has not removed the entry from the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register, the entry in the register is to be maintained but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

2. Where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the protection of a traditional term and the Secretary of State has removed the entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register, the entry in the register is to be restored but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

3. Where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State not to cancel the protection of a traditional term, the entry in the United Kingdom's Traditional Terms Register relating to the traditional term must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.”

SCHEDULE 4

Regulation 15

Regulation (EU) 2019/787 of the European Parliament and of the Council: new provisions

PART 1

New Chapter 4

“CHAPTER 4

GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS: APPEALS

Article 43

Appeals: general

1. An appeal may be made to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State specified in column 1 of the table in Annex 2.
2. Such an appeal may be made:
 - (a) in all cases, by a person specified in the corresponding entry in column 2 of the table in Annex 2;
 - (b) in the case of a decision affecting an application submitted by the authorities of a third country, by the authorities of that third country.
3. In determining such an appeal the FTT:
 - (a) must consider the decision appealed against afresh;
 - (b) may take into account evidence that was not available to the Secretary of State.
4. The FTT may:
 - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) if it allows the appeal, exercise any power specified in the corresponding entry in column 3 of the table in Annex 2.
5. The Secretary of State may consider a decision specified in column 1 of the table in Annex 2 afresh if evidence becomes available to the Secretary of State after making the original decision that was not available to the Secretary of State at the time of the original decision.
6. Paragraph 5 applies even though an appeal has been made in respect of the original decision.
7. Where the Secretary of State decides to consider an original decision afresh in a case where an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of that decision:
 - (a) the Secretary of State must notify the FTT of the Secretary of State’s decision to consider the original decision afresh and publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the person who made the appeal against the decision and the public of that decision;
 - (b) the appeal to the FTT is suspended until such time as the Secretary of State has made a fresh decision in relation to the matter;
 - (c) the Secretary of State must, following the making of the fresh decision, notify the FTT of that decision and publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the person who made the appeal against the decision and the public of that decision.

8. If the Secretary of State makes the same decision again, the appeal to the FTT restarts.
 9. If the Secretary of State makes a different decision, the appeal to the FTT ceases unless the FTT directs otherwise.
- Article 43a

Appeals: applications to register geographical indications

1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to register a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has made an entry in the United Kingdom's GIs Register registering the geographical indication, the entry in the register is to be maintained but is in suspense, and must be marked to indicate that it is in suspense.
 2. The suspension provided for in paragraph 1 continues until the FTT has determined the appeal and:
 - (a) the marking relating to the suspension of the entry is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT dismisses the appeal;
 - (b) the entry relating to the geographical indication is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT determines that the decision must be quashed and directs the Secretary of State to remove the entry relating to the geographical indication from the register;
 - (c) the marking relating to the suspension of the entry is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT remits the matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision and the Secretary of State, following such reconsideration, decides to approve the application and maintain the entry on the register relating to the geographical indication;
 - (d) the entry relating to the geographical indication is removed from the register by the Secretary of State in a case where the FTT remits the matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision and the Secretary of State, following such reconsideration, decides to reject the application relating to the geographical indication.
 3. Where the FTT remits a matter to the Secretary of State for reconsideration and fresh decision:
 - (a) the Secretary of State, after making a fresh decision, must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the applicant and the public of that fresh decision;
 - (b) the provisions of this Chapter and Annex 2 apply to the fresh decision made by the Secretary of State.
 4. After making a change to the United Kingdom's GIs Register of the type specified in points (a) to (d) of paragraph 2, the Secretary of State must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time a notice informing the applicant and the public of the action taken.
 5. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to register a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has not made an entry in the United Kingdom's GIs Register, the Secretary of State must not make an entry in the register until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.
- Article 43b

Appeals: applications to amend product specifications

1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application to amend a product specification for a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has not replaced the copy of the product specification attached to the entry for the geographical indication in the United Kingdom's GIs Register with the approved amended product specification.

2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the United Kingdom's GIs Register for the geographical indication applies without amendment but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.

3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to approve an application to amend the product specification for a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has attached a copy of the amended product specification to the entry for the geographical indication in the United Kingdom's GIs Register.

4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the copy of the product specification in the United Kingdom's GIs Register is to be replaced with a copy of the previous version of the product specification but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.

5. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to reject an application to amend a product specification for a geographical indication, the existing provisions of the product specification attached to the entry for the geographical indication in the United Kingdom's GIs Register apply until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, but the entry for the geographical indication must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to an application to amend the product specification is pending.

Article 43c

Appeals: applications to cancel geographical indications

1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the registration of a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has not removed the entry from the United Kingdom's GIs Register, the entry in the register is to be maintained but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

2. Where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the protection of a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has removed the entry in the United Kingdom's GIs Register, the entry in the register is to be restored but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

3. Where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State not to cancel the registration of a geographical indication, the entry in the United Kingdom's GIs Register relating to the geographical indication must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.”
