

11th July, 1986.

100
A.G.-v-DAVID ANDRÉ McCONNACHIE

Bail Application for David André McConnachie

DEPUTY BAILIFF: The application is refused. Again, I cannot stress too strongly that what the Court is here doing is to review the quality of the decision of, in this case, the Assistant Magistrate and having been taken through the transcript, there is no doubt that Mr Short heard a very comprehensive submission from Advocate Messervy in which every possible factor was put to him, including the legal authority of the 36th edition of Archbold and the various points there, and we have no doubt at all that the Assistant Magistrate did not err in any possible way in reaching his decision and, therefore, we support it.