

1st September, 1987

Police Court Appeal.

A.G. -v- Mark Adrian John Shales

THE BAILIFF: We think that insufficient allowance was made by the learned Magistrate for the fact that this man really was in relation to this offence a first offender, and therefore we are going to vary the sentence and allow the appeal to some extent. The fine will be reduced to one hundred and fifty pounds and the disqualification to nine months.

Is this a legal aid case - you will have your legal aid costs.

Authorities cited:

A.G. -v-Kane 1965 JJ p.501

Greffier's Note:

Appeal against £200 fine and 12 months disqualification for Art 28 Road Traffic Law infraction (taking and driving away). £200 was maximum fine allowed under the law.