

ROYAL COURT

21st March, 1988

Before: Sir P.L. Crill, C.B.E., Bailiff assisted by Jurat P.G. Blampied and Jurat D.E. Le Boutillier

Her Majesty's Attorney General

- v -

Michael Stuart Whelan Gray

Appeal against sentence of disqualification imposed for an infraction of Article 14 of the Road Traffic (Jersey) Law, 1956, (as amended)

Advocate S.C. Nicolle on behalf of the Crown
Advocate C.J. Scholefield on behalf of M.S.W. Gray

JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: This case is without merit and frivolous and in accordance with the law which entitles us to do so, it is dismissed.

This is a frivolous appeal from start to finish. The young man drove his bike on the road totally with disregard of other peoples' rights and it is a frivolous appeal and the Court has power under the law to dismiss an appeal when it regards it as frivolous. This is a frivolous appeal in the opinion of the Court and is dismissed.
