ROYAL COURT
Poursuites Criminelles

22nd September, 1989

Before: P.R. Le Cras, Esq., Commissioner, and
Jurats Vint and Le Boutillier

Attorney General

- v -

33, Chevalier Road, Limited

Infraction of Article 14(1)(a) of the Housing (Jersey) Law, 1949.

The Attorney General
Advocate M.J. Backhurst for the firm.

JUDGMENT

COMMISSIONER LE CRAS: In this particular case it is our view that the contents of the Housing consent were more than clear and notwithstanding the very long delay and the absence of notification of the impending prosecution, we accept the conclusions of the learned Attorney General. Mr. Backhurst, your client therefore is fined £1,500 and will pay £250 costs.
