

ROYAL COURT

25th November, 1991 176

Before: The Bailiff assisted by
Jurats Blampied and Herbert

POLICE COURT APPEALS

Attorney General

- v -

Christopher Cullen

Appeal against a total sentence of six months imprisonment imposed in respect of eight counts of forgery and criminally and fraudulently obtaining cash.

W.J. Bailhache, Esq., Crown Advocate.

Advocate D.F. Le Quesne for the accused.

BAILIFF: The Magistrate heard your case fully. It is perfectly true that you have not been to prison before, but you have a record for dishonesty. You came to this Island and used a stolen cheque on six occasions and we cannot say the Magistrate was wrong in sentencing you to six months imprisonment. Your appeal is dismissed with legal aid costs.

No authorities.