

ROYAL COURT

10th April, 1992

66.

Before: The Bailiff, and Jurats Coutanche and Le Ruez

---

H.M. Attorney General

- v -

Dennis Edmund Barbet

---

Application for review of Magistrate's decision to refuse Bail.

---

The Attorney General.
Advocate P.M. Livingstone for the applicant.

JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: Barbet, as you are going to be indicted shortly, and as the Attorney General has indicated that he is unlikely to move for less than nine months' imprisonment, the risk that you might be in prison on remand for longer than you would have to serve after being sentenced does not appear to us to be very great. However, if there is any substantial delay in your being indicted then you can apply again, however, we are refusing bail this morning.
