

1808. January 19.

CRAIGIE and HORNE against INNES KER and BELLENDEN KER.

No. 3.

AN alleged heir may, for the purpose of making up a title, grant a bond to trustees, and on that bond they may charge him to enter, adjudge the estate and convey the adjudication to him, although the same alleged heir has already attempted to serve, and his service has been suspended by the effect of an appeal to the House of Lords.

Fac. Coll.

* * This case is No. 16. APPENDIX, PART I. voce ADJUDICATION.