

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNALS

Claimant: Mrs G Tak

Respondent: Carillion Construction Services (In Compulsory Liquidation)

JUDGMENT

The claim is struck out.

REASONS

1. This case has been stayed since presentation in 2018 because the respondent has been in compulsory liquidation. The stay cannot be lifted without permission from the High Court.
2. The claimant responded to a strike out warning by email of 18 January 2024 making some representations, but did not seek a hearing.
3. After considering her representations, by a letter dated 30 January 2024 the Tribunal gave the claimant a final opportunity to pursue her claim by making an application to the High Court for permission to do. She was informed that if she had not done so by the end of April 2024 the claim might be struck out.
4. The claimant has not made such an application and it follows that this claim has not been actively pursued.
5. It is now struck out and is at an end.
