REGISTRAR FOR APPROVED DRIVING INSTRUCTORS

Respondent

Decision: The appeal is dismissed.

REASONS

Introduction

1. This is an appeal against a decision of the Registrar of Approved Driving Instructors ('the Registrar'), made on 8 August 2024, to refuse to grant the Appellant a third trainee licence.

Legal Framework

2. The grant of a trainee licence enables applicants to provide instruction for payment before they are qualified.

3. A trainee licence may be granted in the circumstances set out in s. 129 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 ('the Act') and the Motor Cars (Driving Instruction) Regulations 2005.
4. A licence under section 129(1) of the Act is granted: 'for the purpose of enabling a person to acquire practical experience in giving instruction in driving motor cars with a view to undergoing such part of the examination... as consists of a practical test of ability and fitness to instruct.'
5. In order to qualify as an Approved Driving Instructor, applicants must pass the Qualifying Examination. This comprises: the written examination ('Part 1'); the driving ability and fitness test ('Part 2'); and the instructional ability and fitness test ('Part 3').
6. Three attempts are permitted at each part. The whole examination must be completed within 2 years of passing Part 1, failing which the whole examination has to be retaken.
7. If a candidate has passed Part 2, they may be granted a trainee licence. The grant of a trainee licence enables applicants to provide instruction for payment before they are qualified. It is possible to qualify as an Approved Driving Instructor without having held a trainee licence.
8. The powers of the Tribunal in determining this appeal are set out in s.131 of the Act. The Tribunal may make such order as it thinks fit.
9. When making its Decision, the Tribunal stands in the shoes of the Registrar and takes a fresh decision on the evidence available to it, giving appropriate weight to the Registrar's decision as the person tasked by Parliament with making such decisions.
10. The burden of proof in satisfying the Tribunal that the Registrar's decision was wrong rests with the Appellant.

Factual Background to the Appeal

11. The Appellant passed Part 1 of the Qualifying Examination on 1 December 2022. He passed Part 2 on 21 April 2023.
12. He took and failed Part 3 on 28 May 2024. A further Part 3 test was booked on 8 August 2024 but was cancelled by the Appellant.
13. Two trainee licenses have been granted to the Appellant, which were valid from 10 July 2023 to 9 July 2024.
14. On 26 June 2024 the Appellant applied for a third trainee licence.

15. On 2 July 2024 the Appellant was informed that the Registrar was considering refusing the application and invited to make representations.
16. In response, on 6 July 2024, the Appellant stated that he had lost a month's training and practice time due to a road traffic accident in April 2024 and that there was a lack of available tests.
17. The application was refused on 8 August 2024.
18. The reasons for the Registrar's decision, in summary, were that:
 - a. that the Appellant had provided no evidence of lost training time or lack of pupils;
 - b. the Appellant had had the benefit of two training licenses for twelve months;
 - c. the Appellant had cited lack of test availability but cancelled one himself;
 - d. that the Appellant had already had a sufficient amount of time to gain experience to assist in passing Part 3 of the Qualifying Examination and that it was not the intention of Parliament that candidates should be issued with trainee licences for as long as it takes them to pass the examination, and that the trainee licence system must not be used as an alternative to registration as a fully qualified Approved Driving Instructor.

Appeal to the Tribunal

19. The grounds of appeal are, in summary:
 - a. the Appellant has had difficulty getting a Part 3 test date, his first booking being made in November 2023 for a first available date in May 2024;
 - b. a test was booked (at the time the appeal was filed) on 8 August 2024, which he was confident of passing;
 - c. the Appellant was in a serious accident on 2 April 2024 which prevented him from working for a month; it also set him back mentally, meaning that he had to build up his confidence.
20. The Registrar, in his response, states:
 - a. the purpose of the provisions governing the issue of licences is to afford applicants the opportunity of giving instruction to members of the public whilst endeavouring to achieve registration. The system of issuing licences is not and must not be allowed to become an alternative to the system of registration;

- b. the licence granted to applicants is not to enable the instructor to teach for however long it takes to pass the examinations, but to allow up to six months experience of instruction. This provides a very reasonable period in which to reach the qualifying standard in the examination and in particular, to obtain any necessary practical experience in tuition. The Appellant has already had two trainee licences which cover a period of 12 months. Moreover, by virtue of the Appellant having applied for a third licence before the expiry date of the second, that licence has remained in force to the present time and will allow him to continue to give paid instruction until determination of the appeal;
- c. since passing his driving ability test the Appellant has failed the instructional ability test once and cancelled one more such test booked for 08 August 2024. Despite ample time and opportunity the Appellant has not been able to reach the required standard for qualification as an Approved Driving Instructor;
- d. the refusal of a third licence does not bar the Appellant from attempting the instructional ability test of the Register examinations. He does not need to hold a licence for that purpose, nor is it essential for him to give professional tuition under licence in order to obtain further training. The Appellant could attend a training course, or study and practice with an Approved Driving Instructor or give tuition on his own (provided that he does not receive payment of any kind for this). These alternatives are used by some trainees who acquire registration without obtaining any licences at all;
- e. it should be noted [as at 5 September 2024] that the Appellant has not yet booked his second attempt at the instructional ability test.

Evidence

21. I read and took account of a bundle of documents.

Discussion and Conclusions

22. I may overturn the decision of the Registrar if I am of the opinion that it was wrong. The burden is on the Appellant to show this.

23. I note that the Appellant has had the benefit of a trainee licence since 10 July 2023, which has been extended once by the Registrar and again, by virtue of this application, up to today's date. This has given him a total period of almost 18 months in which to prepare for his Part 3 test, notwithstanding the enforced time off work and of which I have seen evidence.

24. I accept that the Appellant was in a road traffic collision in April 2024 and I accept that it necessitated the time off work and caused the loss of confidence he described in his appeal form.
25. However, at that time the Appellant had already held a trainee license for over a year.
26. I note that the Appellant, in his appeal form, was confident of passing the Part 3 test he had booked in August 2024 but subsequently he cancelled that date. I do not know why.
27. The Appellant can continue to study and practice and is able to continue to gain experience and take the test without a trainee licence.
28. The trainee license is not a substitute for taking and passing the test. It is not the purpose of trainee licences to keep renewing them until all attempts at passing Part 3 have been taken.
29. Having weighed all matters in the balance, the Appellant has not persuaded me that the Registrar's decision was wrong. In all the circumstances, I agree with the Registrar's decision and the appeal is dismissed.
