Nature of Complaint

The Information Commissioner (the "Commissioner") has received a complaint which states that on 24th January 2005 the following information was requested from the National Offender Management Service under section 1 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the "Act"):

A copy of the investigation report for the lockdown that took place at HMP Long Lartin between 29/11/04 to 02/12/04.

It is alleged that:

The National Offender Management Service did not provide the requested information within 20 working days.

The Commissioner's Decision

Under section 50(1) of the Act, except where a complainant has failed to exhaust a local complaints procedure, or where the complaint is frivolous or vexatious, subject to undue delay, or has been withdrawn, the Commissioner is under a duty to consider whether the request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the requirements of Part I of the Act and to issue a Decision Notice to both the complainant and the public authority.

The Commissioner's decision is as follows:

The National Offender Management Service did not respond to the complainant's request until 12th May 2005 and has therefore breached section 10(1) of the Act. Section 10(1) states:

“Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a public authority must comply with section 1(1) promptly and in any event not later than the twentieth working day following the date of receipt.”

Action Required

In view of the fact that National Offender Management Service responded to the complainant’s request on 12th May 2005 the Commissioner hereby gives notice that in exercise of his powers under section 50 of the Act he does not require any remedial steps to be taken by the National Offender Management Service.
