

Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA)

Decision notice

Date: 16 July 2024

Public Authority: Hackney London Borough Council
Town Hall
Mare Street
London
E8 1EA

Request:

On 4 April 2024 the complainant requested, from Hackney London Borough Council (the public authority), via its online form, information about the public authority's additional and selective landlord licensing schemes. The complainant asked how many licence applications remained outstanding when the schemes ended, and how many of licences had been approved after the licensing schemes ended.

Commissioner's Decision:

A public authority will breach section 10 of FOIA if it fails to respond to a request within 20 working days. Based on evidence available to the Commissioner, by the date of this notice the public authority has not issued a substantive response to this request. Therefore the Commissioner finds a breach of section 10.

Steps:

The public authority must provide a substantive response to the request in accordance with its obligations under FOIA.

The public authority must take this step within 30 calendar days of the date of this decision notice. Failure to comply may result in the Commissioner making written certification of this fact to the High Court pursuant to section 54 of FOIA and may be dealt with as a contempt of court.

Right of Appeal:

Either party has the right to appeal against this decision notice to the First-tier Tribunal (Information Rights). Information about the appeals process may be obtained from:
